NEGATIVE PROMPT (use on every generation)

photorealistic, live action footage, real people, watermark, text overlay, logo, blurry, low quality, bright cheerful colors, anime, cartoon children

■ HOOK (Teaser Montage)

HOOK-1 (Evil scale intro)

Dark dramatic opening: an oversized antique brass scale labeled "EVIL" sits on a dark stage. Company logo silhouettes float above it as shadowy weights. Scale tips and wobbles. Spotlight from above. Dark smoke curls around the base. Cinematic reveal. Dark infographic animation style.

HOOK-2 (Company logos in shadows)

Ten corporate logos arranged in a circle, each shrouded in dark shadow with a sinister red glow underneath. One by one they pulse with dark energy. Gold and black color palette. Dramatic orchestral visual pacing. Dark infographic style. Quick 5-second reveal montage.

HOOK-3 (World controlled by corporations)

Satellite view of Earth. Ten glowing corporate logo pins appear across different continents, each connected by glowing red lines forming a web around the globe. The web tightens. Dark, ominous. Animated infographic style. Cold blue and red color palette.

■ NIKE — ■■■■■■ 10

NIKE-1 (Factory workers arriving)

Stylized 1970s Asian factory exterior at dawn. Silhouetted workers stream through a large gate under a Nike swoosh sign. Gray industrial sky. Animated illustration style – gritty, desaturated, slightly sepia. Slow zoom in on the gate. Dark and somber. Retro graphic novel texture.

NIKE-2 (Women at sewing machines — wage counter)

Dark factory interior. Rows of animated female silhouettes hunched over sewing machines under single hanging bulbs. In corner of frame: a retro-style wage counter ticking slowly – "14¢ per hour." Dust particles in dim light. Gritty animated illustration style. Desaturated palette.

NIKE-3 (Close-up hands stitching)

Extreme close-up animation: dark-skinned hands meticulously stitching a Nike swoosh onto leather. Each stitch deliberate and slow. Dim single light source from above. Worn fingers, cracked skin. Dark and uncomfortable. Graphic novel illustration style. Tight close-up, slow zoom in.

NIKE-4 (Phil Knight at press conference)

Animated press conference podium. A suited executive character behind microphones, sweating slightly under hot press lights. Cameras flash. Speech bubble: "We take this very seriously." Background shows factory silhouettes through frosted glass. Satirical cartoon style. Dark comedy tone.

NIKE-5 (Revenue vs worker wages — split screen)

■ COCA-COLA — ■■■■■■ 9

COKE-1 (1886 origins — cocaine ingredient)

Sepia-toned 1880s pharmacy illustration. Animated blueprint of original Coca-Cola formula unrolls like a scroll. Labels appear one by one: "COCAINE ✓" "CAFFEINE ✓" "SUGAR SYRUP ✓." Victorian-era ornate border. Warm amber lamplight. Retro vintage illustration style. Slow reveal.

COKE-2 (Sugar wave washing over health guidelines)

Animated wave of thick brown sugar syrup rises from the bottom of frame and crashes over a stack of official health guideline documents. Documents dissolve. Behind the wave: stacks of cash flow into white-coated scientist silhouettes. Stylized dark infographic animation. Bold graphic style.

COKE-3 (Olympic rings + vending machines in schools)

Split screen: LEFT – Olympic rings with Coca-Cola cans superimposed, athletes in silhouette, bright and misleading. RIGHT – animated elementary school hallway, small children's silhouettes approaching a giant red vending machine. Both sides side by side. Dark irony visual. Infographic animation style.

COKE-4 (South America bottling + union killings)

Dark animated map of South America. Red dots pulse at bottling plant locations in Colombia. Skull icons appear next to union worker silhouettes near each plant. Connecting lines show money flowing upward to corporate headquarters. Dark web infographic. Blood red and black palette.

✈ ■ BOEING — ■■■■■■ 8

BOEING-1 (Historic Boeing factory — then vs now)

Retro 1960s factory illustration, warm amber tones, workers proud at assembly line, American flags, optimistic era aesthetic. Then: hard cut to same factory, cold blue-grey modern lighting, atmosphere of secrecy and cost-cutting. Split before/after in one smooth transition. Graphic editorial style.

BOEING-2 (737 MAX 3D model — MCAS override)

Dark 3D-style technical animation: Boeing 737 Max silhouette on black background. Animated red vectors appear showing nose pitching upward on takeoff. MCAS software label appears, arrow forcefully pulls nose back down. Technical diagram aesthetic. Cold blue clinical animation. Warning indicators flash.

BOEING-3 (Crash data — 346 deaths counter)

Dark flight simulator screen animation. Cockpit instruments spinning out of control – altitude dropping, speed increasing. Data readout animates final speed: 700 km/h. Impact. Screen cuts to black. Then: white text counter appears – "346" – counting up one by one to final number. Cold and clinical.

BOEING-4 (CEO golden parachute animation)

Satirical cartoon: suited CEO character gets ejected from a Boeing plane mid-air. A golden parachute labeled "SEVERANCE PACKAGE $$$" deploys above him. He floats down cheerfully, giant money bag in hand, waving. Below: crash wreckage. Dark comedy cartoon style. Exaggerated and absurd.

BOEING-5 (Whistleblowers — deceased stamps)

Dark screen. Animated whistleblower file folders appear one by one, each with a name and "TESTIFIED AGAINST BOEING" label. A red rubber stamp labeled "DECEASED" slams down on each folder sequentially. Four folders. Four stamps. Deliberate, heavy pacing. No music implied. Cold bureaucratic animation.

■ NESTLÉ — ■■■■■■ 7

NESTLÉ F-1 (Saleswomen in fake nurse uniforms)

Retro 1970s style illustration: women in white nurse costumes with Nestlé logo on pocket walk through animated developing country village. Warm but deceptive color palette – pastel and cheerful on surface. Mothers in background look trusting. Dark irony underneath the cheerful visual. Editorial cartoon style.

NESTLÉ F-2 (Free samples until breast milk stops)

Animated sequence: hand offers free formula tin to new mother. Calendar pages flip – weeks passing. Formula tin gets a price tag. Mother's expression shifts. Small graphic shows breast milk production meter dropping to zero. Nestlé sales counter in corner ticks upward. Dark infographic cartoon style.

NESTLÉ F-3 (Contaminated water + formula)

Close-up animation: formula powder being mixed with water in a cup. The water is visibly murky, brown-tinted. Microscopic zoom reveals contamination particles. Simple, clinical, disturbing. Split view: clean formula packet vs contaminated water source. Dark infographic illustration. Muted color palette.

NESTLÉ F-4 (10 million deaths tally counter)

Black screen. White tally marks appear in groups of five, spreading slowly across the entire frame – methodical, relentless. Frame fills completely with marks. Cut to: Nestlé annual report cover – "RECORD PROFITS" in bold. Both fill the screen simultaneously. No narration. The numbers speak. Dark and devastating.

■ FACEBOOK — ■■■■■■ 6

FACBOOK-1 (Mvanmar crisis — man spread)

Animated world map. Facebook blue spreads from California like a virus across all continents, warm and optimistic. Then focus pulls to Myanmar. Blue suddenly turns dark grey-red over that region. Storm clouds animate in from the east. Ominous shift. Dark infographic map style. Slow and deliberate.

FACBOOK-2 (Hate sneech + real-world riots split screen)

Split screen animation: LEFT – local language posts spreading across a dark social feed, shared thousands of times, inflammatory images multiplying. RIGHT – animated riot sequence, silhouettes running, buildings on fire. Both sides mirror each other's intensity. Profit meter in top corner keeps rising. Dark editorial style.

FACBOOK-3 (IUN genocide investigation)

Animated UN document slides into frame, official letterhead visible. Key phrase highlighted in red: "instrumental in genocide." Facebook logo appears in the document next to it. Stamp: "VERIFIED." Cold documentary animation style. Official blue and white palette turning dark. Slow zoom on the stamp.

FACBOOK-4 (Zuckerhern at Senate — animated)

Satirical animated senate hearing room. Small Zuckerberg-like character sits at a giant mahogany desk, surrounded by enormous suited senators. Speech bubble above him: "..."
(empty). Senators lean forward with questions. Character sweats. Dark political cartoon style. Scale exaggerated for comic effect.

FACBOOK-5 (Fvasive answers — engagement meter)

Dark screen split: LEFT – animated question marks from senators. RIGHT – internal Facebook dashboard showing engagement meter rising with every unanswered question. Profit line curves upward as evasion continues. Cold satirical infographic style. The more he avoids, the more money appears on screen.

FACBOOK-6 (Algorithm — engagement over lives)

Animated see-saw: one side labeled "HUMAN SAFETY" the other "ENGAGEMENT." A hand labeled "Algorithm" slams the engagement side down hard. Safety side flies up and off screen. Dollar signs rain from above. Flat, clean infographic animation with dark message. Bold graphic style.

■ PALANTIR — ■■■■■■ 5

PAI ANTIR-1 (Post-9/11 mass surveillance web)

Matrix-style dark animation. Thousands of floating personal documents, emails, phone records, transaction histories drift in dark space. A giant digital eye appears in center, scanning everything. Green matrix rain effect. Data strands connect and web outward. Ominous and vast. Tech surveillance aesthetic. Cold blue-green palette.

PAI ANTIR-2 (PRISM data collection visualization)

Sleek dark-mode tech interface animation. Floating data nodes slowly connect: JP Morgan employee profile → Wendy's supply truck GPS → immigration deportation van → military coordinates. All link into one centralized Palantir-style dashboard. Data pours in from everywhere. Cold blue tech aesthetic. Corporate surveillance visual.

PAI ANTIR-3 (Everything tracked — one platform)

Animated Palantir-style dashboard filling with simultaneous real-time data feeds – burger chain logistics, employee HR files, border crossing records, military target maps. All on one screen, all updating. Then: a generic citizen profile photo appears in one feed. Person didn't know they were there. Cold and clinical.

PAI ANTIR-4 (ICE border tracking — denotation man)

Animated US-Mexico border map, dark and cold. Blue tracking pins appear on the map – individual people. Lines trace movement over days. Then: van icons converge on pin locations. Pins disappear one by one. The map empties. Automated. Efficient. No emotion in the interface. Dark infographic animation.

PAI ANTIR-5 (Military kill chain flow chart)

Tactical dark-mode animation. Flow chart builds automatically: "FIND TARGET" → arrow → "TRACK TARGET" → arrow → "DESTROY TARGET." Satellite view overlay. Green night-vision scope circles a location. No human input shown – fully automated loop. Palantir-style interface aesthetic. Clinical and mechanical. 5 seconds.

■ PURDUE PHARMA — ■■■■■■ 4

PURDUE-1 (OxyContin launch 1996 — blizzard of prescriptions)

Stylized comic villain portrait: Richard Sackler character at a podium, exaggerated confidence. Quote appears: "A blizzard of prescriptions will bury our competitors." Animated prescription papers explode upward and rain down like confetti in slow motion. Champagne glasses clink. Dark satirical cartoon style. Dramatic lighting.

PURDUE-2 (Sales reps lying to doctors)

Animated doctor's office. Pharmaceutical rep in blazer pins a cheerful chart to wall: "Addiction Risk: Less Than 1% ✓". Gifts pile up on the desk – branded pens, gift baskets, golf equipment. Doctor nods, signs prescriptions without reading them. Dark comedy cartoon style. Warm deceptive lighting.

PURDUE-3 (Addiction crisis begins — 500K deaths)

Dark animated street scene. Silhouetted figures slumped against grey walls, desaturated palette. In the corner, an animated counter slowly climbs: 10,000... 50,000... 200,000... 500,000. Tally marks accumulate behind the counter. Clinical and relentless. Dark infographic animation. No color except the red counter.

PURDUE-4 (Profit $35B vs 500K dead — split screen)

Split screen: LEFT – Purdue Pharma revenue bar chart climbing steeply in gold – $5B, $15B, $35B. RIGHT – body count tally marks accumulating in dark grey. Both charts run at identical speed. Profit and deaths rise in parallel. No commentary needed. Dark infographic style. Devastating visual contrast.

PURDUE-5 (Sackler family escapes justice)

Animated courtroom: GUILTY stamp drops on Purdue Pharma logo. Company files for bankruptcy – building sign changes. Back exit: Sackler family silhouettes walk out carrying bulging money bags, loading into black cars. Private jet icon at edge of frame. Matter-of-fact animation. No dramatic music implied. Just facts.

■■ EXXON MOBIL — ■■■■■■ 3

FXXON-1 (1989 CBS breaking news — oil spill)

Animated retro television set showing a vintage 1989 news broadcast. Breaking news ticker scrolls: "EXXON VALDEZ OIL SPILL — ALASKA." Retro CBS logo. TV static edges. Warm cathode-ray glow. Old-fashioned news graphic style, deliberately dated. Slow zoom in on the TV screen. Nostalgic but dark.

FXXON-2 (Oil covering wildlife — Alaska coastline)

Dark animated illustration: Alaskan coastline, oil spreading across rocks and water like black ink. Silhouettes of seabirds and sea otters caught in the slick. Body count graphic appears: "250,000+ animals." Muted palette — grey, black, dark teal. Somber and slow. Editorial illustration style. Environmental tragedy aesthetic.

FXXON-3 (Standard Oil shatters → Exxon reassembles)

Animation: Standard Oil monopoly logo shatters into 34 puzzle pieces, scatters across dark screen. Pause. Several pieces slowly drift back together, reassemble into ExxonMobil logo. Black oil drips down from the reformed logo. Corporate dynasty visual metaphor. Smooth, deliberate animation. Dark and elegant.

FXXON-4 (Exxon's internal climate chart vs public denial — split screen)

Split screen: LEFT — Exxon's 1970s internal climate research chart. Accurate upward temperature curve. Stamped CONFIDENTIAL. RIGHT — New York Times advertisement: "Climate Change: The Science Is Uncertain." Money visibly flies from left into right. Same data. Opposite messages. Dark infographic editorial style.

FXXON-5 (30 years of climate denial funding)

Animated flow chart: Exxon logo → arrows → stacks of cash flowing into newspapers, think tanks, political lobby groups. Each institution pumps out clouds of misinformation labeled "DOUBT." The doubt clouds spread across a globe. 30-year timeline ticker runs in corner. Dark corporate conspiracy infographic style.

FXXON-6 (Deenwater Horizon — 2010 explosion)

Dark animated aerial view of ocean. An oil platform explodes — stylized orange fireball, dramatic. Then: black oil spreads outward from the explosion site in concentric rings, slowly covering the ocean surface. Animated seabirds dive and don't resurface. Dark environmental editorial animation. Slow and impactful.

■ DUTCH EAST INDIA — ■■■■■■ 2

DUTCH-1 (Amsterdam Golden Age — merchant shins)

Retro oil painting style animation of 1600s Amsterdam harbor. Warm gold and amber tones. Merchant ships loaded with exotic spice cargo. Dutch merchant in period clothing holds a small handful of spices up to the light reverently — treating them like diamonds. Cinematic beauty hiding dark truth. Historical illustration style.

DUTCH-2 (Spice trade origins — capitalism invented)

17th century Amsterdam boardroom animation. Merchants in period clothing around a candlelit table. One draws a diagram: "INVESTORS → COMPANY → PROFIT = STOCK." Collective light-bulb moment. Everyone nods. Then: immediate cut to armada of warships departing the harbor. From idea to invasion in one smooth beat. Dark historical cartoon.

DUTCH-3 (VOC expansion — flags planting across Asia)

Animated antique map of Southeast Asia. Dutch VOC flags plant across island chains one by one — each flag planting accompanied by a small fire animation. Trade routes glow gold. The ocean between islands darkens progressively. Fast-paced flag planting accelerates as map fills. Dark historical infographic style.

DUTCH-4 (Indonesia under Dutch rule — Banda massacre)

Dark historical map animation: Indonesia highlighted. Dutch corporate army icon advances across the islands. Population counter appears: Banda Islands — 15,000 people. Counter drops rapidly: 1,500. 90% wiped out. Then: slave ship icons appear, moving in. Clinical infographic presentation of atrocity. Dark red and black palette.

DUTCH-5 (Colonial conquest — British East India comparison)

Comparative scale animation: British East India Company army size vs actual British Empire army. Two bar charts. Corporate army bar towers over government army. British flag plants across India map. Opium ship animations cross to China. Company logo quietly transforms into a government seal. Corporate → Empire. Dark editorial infographic.

■■ DUPONT — ■■■■■■ 1

DUPONT-1 (Teflon discovery 1938 → mass market)

1938 lab animation: chemist in white coat accidentally spills a shiny, frictionless substance. Eggs slide off it perfectly. Eyes widen. Jump cut: 1950s-style cheerful kitchen commercial — Teflon pan in every home, happy housewives, American dream aesthetic. Then DuPont profit chart climbs steeply. Retro ad style → dark infographic.

DUPONT-2 (West Virginia farm — sick cattle)

Grayscale animated farm illustration. Rolling hills, but wrong — cattle lie still in the field. Farmer in overalls stands at fence, staring at an industrial facility on the horizon. Pipes run from factory to a stream near the dead animals. Somber. Still. Slow zoom out reveals scale of both. Dark editorial illustration.

DUPONT-3 (Rob Bilott — 110,000 pages)

Satirical cartoon: determined lawyer character sits at desk. Corporate delivery truck backs up to his door. Doors open. Avalanche of 110,000 documents floods out, burying him under paper mountain. His hand pushes out from the pile holding a single page with damning evidence highlighted in red. Dark comedy with weight.

DUPONT-4 (PFOA — Forever Chemical molecular reveal)

Animated chemical diagram: PFOA molecular structure assembles on dark background, clinical and precise. Red warning indicators pulse around it. Label flashes: "FOREVER CHEMICAL — Does not break down in nature." Animation shows molecule entering soil → water → food → human body and staying. Cold scientific infographic style. Ominous red palette.

DUPONT-5 (99% contamination — world blood grid)

World map animation. Countries light up red one by one — slowly at first, then rapid, until 99% of Earth glows red. Zoom in: microscopic blood vessel view. Chemical molecule symbols float visibly in the blood. Pull back to reveal it's the viewer's own arm. Counter: "99% of ALL humans." Slow and disturbing.

■ OUTRO

OUTRO-1 (All 10 logos = daily life reveal)

Ten corporate logos arranged in a perfect circle on dark background. Slow zoom reveals each logo is attached to an everyday object – Nike shoes, Coke can, Boeing plane ticket, Nestlé coffee, Facebook phone screen, pill bottle, oil pump, old colonial map, Teflon pan. Person stands in center surrounded. Trapped in the corporate web.

OUTRO-2 (Subscribe button — dark comedy)

Animated subscribe button pulses dramatically on dark background. Giant red button center screen. Dramatic orchestral swell implied. Corporate logos from all 10 companies circle the button like planets orbiting a sun. Clean graphic animation, intentionally over-dramatic. Quick 5-second button animation. Dark humor tone.
